IT'S CHANGE NO. 4 FOR NILES BANK

Niles' bank this week was operating under the fourth banner in its 51-year history.

The bank was founded in 1903 as the Niles State Bank. First president was Jackson Dennis, with the late E. A. Ellsworth as vice-president. Ellsworth assumed the presidency in 1907.

In 1912, the bank was sold to August May's Bank of Alameda County, whose home office was in Alvarado. The present manager, Robert Blacow, was transferred to Niles from Alvarado in 1920.

In 1938, the Niles branch and May's two banks in Alvarado and Irvington were purchased by Oakland's Central Bank. This month, control and name of all three passed to the San Francisco Bank.

Policies and personnel will remain unchanged, it was stressed in joint statements announcing merger of the Central and San Francisco banks, whose combined resources now approach a half-billion dollars.

Fire of undetermined origin swept through Decoto's New Colma Mill & Lumber Company late last Thursday, razing the mill's east wing and bringing a half-dozen fire departments out to battle the blaze.

Work Begins On News & Register Office In C'ville

Work started this week in Centerville on Washington Township's new newspaper offices.

To be located at 177 Fremont Avenue, the $35,000 concrete-block structure will house Washington Township Newspapers, Inc., publisher of the Township Register, Washington News, Alvarado Pioneer and Milpitas Star.

Contractor R. A. Griffin of Irvington is moving an existing house to the rear of the site. A 63x85-foot one-story building will occupy the front of the 75x200-foot lot. It is scheduled to be ready in 60 days.

Co-publishers George H. Oakes and Stuart Nixon hailed the move as a forward step in the Township's progress. They pointed out that their investment will make possible bigger and better newspapers to serve this expanding area.

The building will contain, in addition to two retail stores which will be leased, a modern newspaper office, plus a "back shop" including a web-fed press, three typesetting machines, job presses and other modern equipment.

The press already is sitting on its foundation at the site, and the building will be constructed around it.

Oakes has been ill for several weeks, having undergone two operations. However he is now at his home recovering, and expects to return to his post as president of the newspapers sometime in August.

Estimates of the damage ranged to nearly $200,000 today, according to Lincoln Farnsworth, manager of the mill for Claude T. Lindsay. Farnsworth said plans to rebuild have still not been made.

The fire was discovered shortly before 6:30 p.m. by Art Anchundo, 16, employee who was sweeping out the east wing, where kitchen cabinets were manufactured. Anchundo reported smoke coming from a crack in the ceiling.

He summoned help and other workmen tackled the fire briefly before sounding an alarm at 6:45 o'clock that brought the Decoto firemen, and eventually those from Niles, Centerville, Newark, Alvarado, Alta Vista and even the county patrol.

Working under direction of Decoto Chief Roland Bendel, the fighters made their way into the flaming building, and though unable to save it, did keep the holocaust from spreading to the rest of the big mill and to a row of new homes across the street.

Farnsworth said a large store of door-and-window frames and kitchen cabinets was destroyed in the fire, as well as the 100x300-foot building itself and all the saws and lathes used in the finishing work. While the cabinets were insured fully, building and machinery were not, he said.

Firemen laid hose under the Southern Pacific tracks next to the yard at D Street, and freight trains were thus able to continue past the blaze during the night-long battle.

Farnsworth thanked the fire departments for their work. Chief Bendel, who had made a periodic inspection of the mill earlier in the day, said the assistance from neighboring stations and the county "shows how well our mutual-aid system works."

Money Picture Brighter At WUHS ... But Not Much

Hard-pressed Washington Hills found a few more thousands in the bottom of the barrel last week, but it still wasn't enough to take the school off an "austerity" program next year, according to Dist. Supt. J. V. Goold.

Goold told his trustees at last week's meeting that the County tax collector came up with an unexpected $20,000 in property-tax redemptions which can be used to establish a reserve for contingencies. The school had figured it might have to try to squeak by without this reserve.

Then Goold disclosed he was able to save around $13,000 out of un-distributed reserve funds from the year which ended June 30. All-in-all, he said it looks like a $477,220 budget.

This won't allow any teacher raises, new busses, shop instructors, or other items lopped off after the May 21 tax election failed.

This year, the tax rate will be 82.2 cents per $100 instead of 75 cents as in the past. This is because — in order to run the district at all — Goold had to invoke a 5-cent recreation tax permitted schools whose facilities are opened to public use; and a 2.2-cent tax for employee retirement. Neither had been levied in the past.

Goold reported the $1,000,000 annex is 60 percent complete. He also reminded newcomers to the Township that school opens on September 7, and that unregistered new students must come in early — around September 1 or 2 — if they expect to get the courses they want.

"First come, first served," Goold warned.

Measles, Pox

Four cases of measles and three of chickenpox were reported in Washington Township last week to Dr. J. C. Malcolm, county health director.

BEWARE OF 'DEVELOPERS'

Broun Advises Cityhood For Centerville's Protection

Cityhood for Centerville, if necessary, to prevent what he termed "exploitation without representation" by unprincipled subdividers was advocated Monday by LeRoy Broun before the local chamber of commerce.

WANT WHITEWINGS? GET A CITY!

The cure for dirty streets is cityhood, Centerville learned this week from State Highway officials.

Answering a plea from the chamber of commerce for more frequent visits from the State sweeper, the highway division replied:

1. The sweeper now comes twice a month, maximum possible — under present schedules.

2. It could come more often only if the town incorporated and contracted with the State for cleanup service.

Chamber members chewed that one over with their cold-plate special, but took no action.

Hospital Takes System Design From Architect

Directors of the Washington Township Hospital District, impatient over alleged delays in construction of their $1,250,000 hospital, last week took plans for the building's water system out of the hands of their architect, Larue Sorensen.

The directors, headed by L. S. Whitaker, announced they will deal directly with engineers for the project, thus cutting Sorensen out of an estimated $1600 fee.

"We had been assured by Mr. Sorensen that we could break ground for the hospital in July," Whitaker declared. "But delays over design of the water system have held us up far past the deadline."

Sorensen will continue in charge of blueprints for the rest of the hospital, on which he receives an 8-percent fee. But Whitaker's board members will deal with Engineer G. M. Simonson on the well and pressure system.

Whitaker blamed the delay on Sorensen's failure to deal with a situation which arose when the Alameda County Water District last spring admitted it could not supply enough gallonage for the hospital.

Then a $20,000 well and pressure tank had to be designed. Sorensen said he "did not have enough information" to pass on to Simonson so the engineer could complete the work.

Whitaker countered that when the directors finally went to San Francisco, interviewed Simonson, and gave him the facts already given Sorensen, that the problem was speedily solved.

Drilling of the well was started this week under direction of A. S. Enos of Centerville. The district will build a 10,000-gallon tank at the rear of the hospital, with Water District mains as auxiliary "stand-bys."

Broun, longtime backer of Township-wide incorporation, and moving spirit behind the Coro Report of 1953, vented his wrath on (1) "out-of-town 'developers' who try to dictate how we shall zone Centerville," and (2) Supervisor Harry Bartell.

Broun declared his about-face comes because the supervisor "does anything the so-called 'developers' want," especially when it comes to minimum lot-sizes for Centerville.

The attorney pointed out that local public meetings showed residents want 6500-foot-minimum lot sizes, to "create a little light and air around homes, and to give us better homes and a healthier tax base."

Planning staffers cut this to 6000 square feet before zoning came before the Planning Commission, Broun added.

But the subdividers, represented by John I. Hennessy, and abetted by Bartell, still want 5000-foot minimums, he declared.

"We must resist," Broun cried, "if we want to retain control of our future in Centerville."

"At present we are victims of exploitation without representation. The builders want to exploit us, and anything they do is backed by Bartell. We have only one supervisor, and one planning commissioner. I came away from those zoning meetings, with a new concept: if necessary, we should incorporate Centerville so we can have some self-government."

"If there are those who don't want to pay a dollar extra on the tax rate (for cityhood), they deserve to be exploited."

According to Broun, the Planning Commission also "cut down the potential business district until they established a virtual monopoly of front-footage, 'making it necessary' to buy a house and move it before you can build."

Both lot-sizes and extra business area were up before the Planning Commission this week for reconsideration.

Ford Brings 42,000 To Milpitas, Claim

Hayward look out — Milpitas is going to leave you behind, population-wise.

This was the prediction here last week of John I. Hennessy, vice-president of the Associated Home Builders of the Greater Eastbay, in a talk before the Niles Rotary Club.

Hennessy predicted the Ford plant will bring 3500 new workers to Milpitas. This, he said, will mean another 10,500 persons to care for their professional and retail needs, or a total of 14,000.

Counting each worker and supporting individual as the breadwinner for a family of three, this means 42,000 new Milpitanans.

(Many of them probably will live in Washington Township, Hennessy stressed.)

Irvington Wants Secretary Too

While the Township Chamber of Commerce debates advisability of fulltime help, its subordinate chamber in Irvington feels it needs a secretary-manager too.

A. E. Alameda, Irvington president, declared Tuesday:

"This is big business, not a social gathering anymore. We need a full-time man."

Nobody suggested action on the issue, but Ernest Vayssie agreed, saying:

"We need a liaison man between the town and the builders and the industries."

The Irvington Chamber then recessed its meetings until September 7, on recommendation of its directors.

'UNFAIR REQUEST'

Water District Turns Down Rebate Asked By Conway & Culligan

Climaxing weeks of argument, tained for well locations is 1.1 directors of the Alameda County Water District on Friday turned down a rebate proposal made by the subdividers of a 1200-home tract.

The subdividers, Conway & Culligan of San Mateo, had asked the district to reimburse them for putting water mains in Irvington.

An opinion by Attorney Knox, submitted in a letter discussed during a two-hour executive session was released to the press. Excerpts read:

"A fundamental principle of public service is that rates must be uniform . . . should you attempt to charge customers in the Irvington Square tract an additional amount to be turned over to Conway and Culligan, your action would be unlawful and could not be enforced against the property owners . . .

Ernest Vayssie, acting postmaster, said his present 1000-square-foot office is rapidly becoming too small to care for the growing population of Irvington.

Vayssie said a questionnaire to local subdividers brought him the information that 2700 new homes will be completed in the area by the end of 1955. He added that he understands Alameda County is due for eight new postoffices next year, and suggested that Irvington get its bid in early.

On Vayssie's motion, amended by Wallace Pond, the secretary was instructed to write Congressional representatives asking for such consideration.

"We'll have door-to-door delivery by the end of 1954," Vayssie predicted.

Knox also advised the district to oppose any change in the contract made by Conway & Culligan with Alameda County Supervisors whereby the tract developers are required to take water from the public utility — the district.

Conway & Culligan had hinted they would set up an independent water district, using wells and Hetch-Hetchy water as a standby. However, Dist. Mgr. Matt Whitfield said conversations with Hetch-Hetchy officials in San Francisco convinced him this could not be done.

District Directors also voted to sell a 1.9-acre parcel of land on Santos Road to St. James Episcopal Church for $3500. It will be used for a new church site. Reconsideration.

COUNTY ROAD MAY CUT ACROSS SITE OF NEWARK SCHOOL

Newark school trustees, almost ready to build a $400,000 "junior high school" on Thornton Avenue, were concerned this week with the possibility the county may cut 80 feet off the end of the property by driving Lincoln Road straight through to Thornton.

"We weren't informed about this," complained Supt. Jack MacGregor. He said the trustees may protest to the Supervisors.

Last week the County Planning Commission voted to recommend to the Supervisors that Lincoln be extended through to Thornton.

The school district is purchasing a 14-acre site at the proposed extension. The road would require revision of district plans, MacGregor conceded.

"The trustees met with the commission several months ago," the superintendent said. "But they told us the road might never be extended. This is the first we knew about the recommendation."

TOWNSHIP RAISES $2757 FOR PALS

Alameda County contributed a total of $86,021 to the first full-scale "Parade for Cerebral Palsy" on June 4, officials of the United Cerebral Palsy Association said today.

Of this, the Washington Township area donated a total of $2757 to the drive under chairmanship of Sheriff's Capt. Richard Condon, according to Dist. Atty. J. Frank Coakley, general chairman.

Centerville's drive raised $648, Decoto's $580, Niles' $507, Alvarado's $173, Newark's $461 and Irvington's $20. Coin containers in the area added $366 more, Condon reported.

"We wish to extend our sincere thanks to the public for their generous contributions and to the nearly 5000 volunteer workers for their splendid efforts during this drive," Coakley continued.

The Newark Recreation District Baseball team, composed of boys from 12 to 15 years of age, wound up their season last week with a record of 3 wins, 2 losses, and 1 tie.

Team batting honors were won by Gary Boggs with 6 hits in 13 times at bat, for an average of .461; and by Norman Tackett who collected 6 hits in 16 times at bat for a .375 average. Three of Tackett's hits were for extra bases, 2 doubles, and one triple, and he also led in runs batted in with 6 runs, followed by Doug Harris with 5 runs.

Gary Boggs was the most effective hurler with 3 wins and 2 losses, chalking up 21 strikeouts and issuing only 6 walks.

All boys will receive team membership certificates. Winning block awards are Norman Tackett, Gary Arnold, Jerry Farnam, Gary Boggs, Marilyn Oik, Don Ed Haynes, Gene Ayala, Doug Harris, Dennis Nevis, Dick Spence, Bobby Bradley, David Martin and David Samarano. Baseball blocks were earned on a point basis, with Gary Arnold earning all possible points.

The Kiwanis Club will help the boys write a happy finish to their season by hosting a picnic and swim party on July 15 from 2:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. at Elderberry Park.

Twenty-four boys, 23 girls and 10 adults attended "Fairland" in Oakland on Saturday July 10. The bus left the school grounds at 8:30 a.m. and returned at 2 p.m.

How to Make Good Old-Fashioned Pickled Peaches

Want to make some wonderful pickled peaches—the kind your grandmother used to serve with baked ham or chicken for Sunday dinner? Then here's how:

Boil together for 10 minutes: 5 cups C and H pure Cane Granulated Sugar; 2 cups cider vinegar; ½ cup water; 1 tablespoon whole cloves; 3 three-inch pieces of stick cinnamon. While it is boiling, scald and peel 12 to 16 medium-size firm-ripe peaches. Cook about half the peaches at a time in the spiced syrup, turning them frequently, until just tender.

With spoon, lift out peaches carefully into hot wide-mouth jars. Cook remaining peaches and put in jars. Then boil down syrup 8 to 10 minutes, until fairly thick. Strain over peaches in jars. Tuck a piece of cinnamon into each jar. Seal. Makes about 4 pints.

For a pretty meat platter, nest pickled peaches in watercress or parsley around baked ham or roast turkey or chicken or pork. Save the rich, spicy, vinegar syrup that's left. Use it in making cooked salad dressing, or for baking a thick slice of ham. Or drop cooked or canned prunes or other firm fruit into the left over syrup, heat gently 5 to 10 minutes, then chill and serve with meats.

Foresight Urged To Save Niles, Centerville From 'Topsy' Fate

Central Washington Township "will become a kind of No-Man's Land" unless civic bodies "get off the dime and do something" to solve problems of water, drainage and planning, a builders' association official told the local Rotary Club Thursday.

John I. Hennessy, executive vice-president of the Associated Home-builders of the Greater East Bay, declared:

1. The Niles-Centerville area is playing the role of the rope in a fierce "tug-of-war" now being waged between Oakland and San Jose for the region's business.

2. The area has a brilliant future for homes and industry, but only if wisely planned.

"Hayward can't handle any major industry requiring sizeable amounts of water," Hennessy declared, "since it is at the mercy of the San Francisco Utility Commission because it gets water from Hetch Hetchy."

"But your climate here needs to be made favorable for industry," the speaker advised. "They want ample water and proper drainage before they'll invest." Hennessy implied Niles and Centerville ought to pass bonds this year for flood curbs and drainage, as Irvington and Hayward have done.

The builder representative also rapped Centerville's try to hold 6000 square feet, as opposed to subdivision lot sizes at 6000 square feet, as opposed to 5000 square feet most contractors prefer. The issue is now before the Alameda County Supervisors.

"The only way to get finer homes is to write it into the deed restrictions," Hennessy declared. "Look at Santa Clara County. I can show you a lot of poor development on 7000-foot minimum lots. With a 6000-foot minimum, you're only driving away 20 per cent of the potential development."

In the past year, development has turned away from Southern California to the northern part of the State, Hennessy said. President Frederic Whitman of the Western Pacific Railroad and other experts are predicting this area to attract huge quantities of industry in the next 10 years, and the demand for housing will rise proportionately, the speaker forecast.

"Large-scale development, like Palma Celia Village (at Mt. Eden) and Irvington Square won't come here until you get flood control," Hennessy warned. "Right now

Niles is in the center of the pulling and hauling (between Oakland and San Jose) because there has not been the proper planning on the part of citizens and public officials.

"What happens next will determine whether you become a 'green belt' or whether you just grow, like Topsy."

Hennessy said Centerville's proposed zoning, at least as far as 6000-foot minimum lot sizes are concerned, "displays poor thinking." He repeated his contention that "you won't get better houses by setting up minimum sizes."

The executive stressed that forcing builders to use larger lots "results in the loss of tax values," and brings a landowner a smaller price for his property. During a question period, he admitted to Maurice Marks that "Mission San Jose is different," since lot sizes there are now restricted to 8000 and 10,000 square feet, a figure which effectively blocks further GI homes.

"We're hoping to drive the small stuff down to Irvington," Marks explained.

Hennessy commented on the Conway & Culligan plan to establish a "mutual water district" in Irvington Square. Said he:

"It would have a deleterious effect on the whole (Alameda County Water) district," Hennessy asserted.

"It would create long-range problems by putting the district in a position where it would be impossible to make plans for the future."

Concluding his theme of opposition to the minimum lot-size restrictions, Hennessy declared:

"You'll cut out population, which is the thing that helps business. There isn't the market for these large lots, and you know, it's competition and the economy that sets the market, not lot sizes."

MANUEL ANDRADE DIES IN DECOTO

Manuel Andrade, 60, widely-known Township businessman, died suddenly July 8 of a heart ailment. He was born and lived all his life in Decoto where he owned and operated the Decoto Garage.

Andrade was the husband of Mrs. Rose Andrade of Decoto; father of Albert Andrade of Hayward; brother of Mrs. Mary Maia and Lenore Andrade of Decoto, Mrs. Rose Dutra, Bill and George Andrade of Centerville and Henry Andrade of Alvarado. He also leaves three granddaughters.

Services were held Monday at Chapel of the Palms, Centerville, with mass at Holy Rosary Church, Decoto. Interment was in Holy Ghost Cemetery, Centerville.

Death Rides Roads, Kiwanians Told

Automobiles kill seven persons per million miles travel, while the supposedly dangerous mode of transportation, the airplane, has a casualty rate of only five-tenths of a person per million miles, according to figures quoted by William McGinnis, member of the Pittsburg Rotary Club, in his address to the Newark Kiwanis Club on Monday.

"Ninety percent of the cars involved in accidents, fatal or otherwise, were in good condition and it is the human factor such as the reflexes and actions of the man, woman or youth behind the wheel that causes accidents," said McGinnis. He urged all to be cognizant of safety rules and live. McGinnis was introduced by his son, Robert McGinnis, who was program chairman.

Next Monday at seven o'clock the Newark club will host the Berkeley Kiwanis Club, the home club of Lt. Gov. Bud Dunn of District 11, for an inter-club meeting in Calvin Hall.

Charles Snow will be program chairman. He will introduce the guest speaker, Walter E. Hawkins, Lieutenant of Inspectors of the Oakland Police Department who will speak on "Crime Detection and Apprehension of Criminals".

Welcome Signs Will Point Out Irvington

Giant billboards welcoming newcomers to Irvington were approved Tuesday by the town chamber of commerce.

William F. Humpert reported chamber directors want to put one sign at each entrance to town along Highway 17. He also said:

1. Land has been donated for this purpose by Jack Stevenson and Hugh Jackson, at the north and south entrances, respectively.
 2. Conway & Culligan will erect an 18x36-foot southern sign free of charge as a public service.
 3. Directors will contact builders on the north end of town to solicit similar aid.
- As designed, the signs welcome motorists to "Irvington, Pride of Washington Township."

In Business

Bill Short and Mason "Doc" Wooten, former Centerville auto sales executives, this week announced their venture into business for themselves in Newark.

The two will operate Billadoc Motors, formerly Logan Motors, at Thornton and Magnolia in the industrial city. Bill and Doc welcome visits from their friends and pledge the finest in almost-new autos.

Highway Program

Wins WTCC Okeh

Endorsement of this year's recommendations of the Alameda County Highway Advisory Committee was voted Monday by directors of the Washington Township Chamber of Commerce.

The recommendations include a top-priority plea for completion of the Eastshore Freeway as early as possible.

Committee representatives will journey to Sacramento in mid-August to lay the recommendation before the State Highway Commission. At that time, Township representatives are scheduled to be on hand to make their plea for completion of the north-south artery.

At Monday's chamber meeting, directors suggested that the Mission-Livermore highway be placed on a priority list soon, and that other highway deficiencies in the Township be listed and presented to the county-wide advisory committee.

Coit Tower, atop Telegraph Hill in San Francisco, is open daily from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

WEDGEWOOD'S DUAL WIN PACES LOOP

By BOB HIRD

League-leading Wedgewood captured two more softball wins as they continued their mastery over local clubs, ending the first half play. Teams took a two-week layoff, with play resuming on July 19.

In the opening game of the week, second-place Warm Springs shut out U.S. Pipe, 8-0, and Wedgewood trounced Cabrillo Park, 14-1.

Warm Springs' chucker, Ted Garcia, checked the Pipemen with four singles in the initial contest, while teammate Joe Gonzales paced the winners with three safeties, including a double and homer. Dave Berrios also homered for the victors.

In the nightcap, the one-hit pitching of Ernie Chitwood assured Wedgewood a victory. A twelve-run fifth inning gave the league leaders all the scores they needed.

Tuesday night saw the Cabrillo Park team upset the Veterans of Foreign Wars, by an 8-3 count in the opening game. Righthander Al Boyer held the Vets to five scattered hits in earning the victory. Dean Davenport paced Cabrillo with three hits in three tries.

In the nightcap, Warm Springs humbled hapless Orangeburg, which committed thirteen errors. Warm Springs' Ted Garcia had a perfect game going until the fifth when an error and two singles gave Orangeburg their two runs.

In Thursday evening's opener, Quality Meats blanked U.S. Pipe, 6-0, as righthander Ray Orta twirled a no-hit, no-run contest.

Orta had a spotless game on ice until the seventh when an error and base on balls spoiled things. Sabe Elizarrey smacked a two-run homer in the first inning for Quality.

In the final game of the evening, righthander Gene Johnson twirled league leading Wedgewood to an 11-1 win over Kraftite. Johnson allowed only two hits, struck out five and passed three.

IRVINGTON SEEKS WAY TO BUILD 3 NEW SCHOOLS

Trustees of the Irvington School District will meet tonight to consider how they can build three new schools to keep up with an avalanche of homes in the area.

The boardmen must decide shortly to call a bond election if they are to get another school by September, 1955. The new $193,000, 10-room annex to the single grammar school will be jammed to capacity when its doors open this fall.

Superintendent Gus Robertson estimates it will accommodate the 600 youngsters he sees enrolled this September. Using the community building and three emergency classrooms, Robertson says he thinks the present school can handle 800 students before going on double sessions.

But his staff already has counted 230 homes partially completed, with perhaps double that many foundations under construction around Irvington. With the mass-building plans of Conway & Culligan, the Stanley Davis Organization, and others, Robertson believes plans must be made at once for three new schools.

The district attorney's office therefore has been preparing schedules for an October election. Robertson says this probably will include:

1. A $185,000 bond issue, of which $50,000 could be sold this year to qualify the district for State aid.
2. Another $750,000 to $1,000,000 in State subsidies, which probably will not have to be repaid.

"With this money, we could build almost three schools," Robertson says. "And by asking for permission to sell enough bonds, we could avoid the expense of another election later."

The superintendent hopefully set a timetable this way:
October, 1954: bond-and-State-aid election.

December, 1954: Contract for one new school.
June or July, 1955: Start second and third new schools.

September, 1955: Finish first new school.
September, 1956: Finish second and third new schools.

Location of the new elementary has not been determined, but Robertson said Conway & Culligan have set aside one site in their Irvington Square tract. Another school might be on Cooks Road, he said, while a third probably should be located northward, around PG&E Road.

Conway & Culligan have offered to assist in the program, the educator disclosed. The firm has volunteered to build several homes—leaving out interior partitions—next to the site of the proposed permanent school in Irvington Square. Connecting these with covered walks, a makeshift school could be operated to ease the burden for the district, Robertson forecast.

The builders will rent the classrooms to the district for interest charges only, $30 or $40 a month apiece, Robertson went on. "This would tide us over until the permanent school was ready," he concluded.

Polio Tests Successful So Far. County Health Chief Reports

A final report on the polio vaccination field trials in southern Alameda County was released today by Dr. James C. Malcolm, County Health Officer, who stated "no children have had unfavorable reactions from the injections", and added "none of the children injected have contracted polio."

LOCAL TAXES UP $7.60 PER PERSON SINCE LAST YEAR

Property owners in Alameda County were billed an average of $81.23 per capita for local government spending in the county in 1953-54, compared with $64.55 for 1949-50 and $73.63 for 1952-53, California Taxpayers' association reported today.

Included in the average property tax bill per person were the levies for the county, and the cities, school districts, and special districts in the county.

For the county government, the property tax bill averaged $25.30 per capita for 1953-54, compared with $17.89 for 1949-50 and $22.11 for 1952-53.

For the cities in the county, property taxes levied averaged $22.36 per person for this year, compared with $20.03 for 1949-50 and $21.07 for 1952-53.

For the school districts in the county, property tax bill was $27.12 per capita of population for 1953-54, $22.17 for 1949-50 and $24.56 for 1952-53.

For the county's special districts, the property tax averaged $6.45 per person for the current year, $4.46 for 1949-50, and $5.89 for 1952-53.

State-wide, the property tax bill for 1953-54 averaged $84.49 per person in the entire population, compared with $68.54 for 1949-50 and $79.49 for 1952-53.

For the county governments (including San Francisco city) property taxes averaged $29.09 per person, compared with $24.69 for 1949-50 and $27.61 for 1952-53.

For the city governments (excluding San Francisco), the property tax bill for 1953-54 was $13.41 per capita, compared with $11.40 for 1949-50 and $12.69 for 1952-53.

For the school districts throughout California, property taxes amounted to $35.00 per capita for 1953-54, compared with $27.60 for 1949-50 and $33.30 for 1952-53.

For the special districts throughout the state, property tax levies reached $6.99 per capita for 1953-54, compared with $4.85 for 1949-50 and $5.89 for 1952-53.

"These property tax figures per capita are composites of the levies of most of the governmental units within the county and state-wide."

"Generally speaking property taxes have been going up faster than the population is increasing," the association said.

"This means local government spending has been increasing faster than the population it serves."

"Local budget time, now going on in many communities, is the time for taxpayers to make their case—if they want their property tax bill for 1954-55 held within bounds," the Taxpayers' association declared.

PARKING SITE OK IN CENTERVILLE

A dollar-a-year lease on a 50-car parking lot behind the Center Theater was approved Monday by the Centerville Chamber of Commerce.

Merchants' customers will benefit from the lot, which was negotiated by a committee headed by Phil Willis.

Operators of the theater specified that the lot must be emptied by 6:30 p.m. daily, and that it must be kept clean by the chamber. Willis, Leonard Miller and others volunteered to handle this chore.

Clements & Co., local contractors, have agreed to blacktop the lot free of charge as a public service, Willis said.

Attorney LeRoy Broun was empowered to negotiate a 5-year lease on the vacant property.

This is supposed to be the hot-weather season when everyone hastens off to beach and mountain, and when the unwritten law against considering anything important gets invoked. This year, however, events are moving too fast in Washington Township to wait on vacations.

Take the past week, for instance: on Thursday an executive of the East Bay Homebuilders' association informed a service club that lot sizes here should remain unrestricted, lest "development" be discouraged. The speaker's view seems to be reflected in the attitude of at least one influential member of the Board of Supervisors.

The same day, in Milpitas, homebuilders agreed to establish a $100,000 "kitty" for community drainage. Members acknowledged their responsibility to help the town solve the drainage problems they brought to it. (Thought: builders bring school problems, sewage problems too.)

Then on Monday in Centerville, the secretary of the local chamber of commerce declared himself for cityhood. He warned the town is being "exploited" by subdividers who are willing that it should grow in any hodge-podge fashion if they can build the way they want to. He said the only way to control such goings-on is to incorporate the town for the purpose of local self-government.

Township residents should resist the temptation to give our thinking mechanisms a vacation this summer. We should consider carefully what implications for our community these three occurrences hold. The Centerville man's argument is correct: government of this mushrooming region is handled by remote control, 30 miles away in Oakland. We have a single Supervisor, a single representative on the Planning Commission. Neither can be close enough to the local picture to comprehend the complexities of what is happening here, in an area which many people think is the fastest-growing one in California.

Local government seems to be the answer. Though the Township is still too vast to become one city, its eight towns are not. Many cities in this State are smaller than Centerville, or Niles, or Newark, or Irvington.

Maybe it's summer, but it's still a good time to think about, talk about, and maybe start acting upon cityhood!

Orchestra Rehearsal

Boys and girls, whether grammar school or high school pupils, who have at any time played in the Newark School orchestra, are invited to a meeting tomorrow (Friday) evening at 7 o'clock in the Newark School auditorium to discuss continuing the orchestra during the summer under sponsorship of the Recreation District. Tentative plans are being made for a program at the end of August.

Children are requested by Ed Maughan to bring their instruments and music for a short rehearsal.

WT C OF C SEEKING CURE FOR ILLS

Deciding that the Washington Township Chamber of Commerce is on the sickly side, directors this week agreed to call in some outside "doctors" for a diagnosis of what's wrong.

The "consultants" are William Sparling, secretary-manager of the Oakland Chamber; Roger Anderson, who occupies a similar position in Hayward; and Philip S. Breck Jr., public-relations consultant from Oakland.

A quorum of the directors met Monday and discussed means of injecting life into a membership drive. Issues talked over included (1) hiring a paid secretary-manager, and (2) setting up policies which might attract members.

The chamber membership has remained static since reorganization of its bylaws early this year.

John A. Ford, retired Irvington railroadman, was interviewed for the secretary job. Previous candidates included Harry Weber of Centerville, retired PG&E executive.

The chamber directors said they will meet July 26 with Sparling, Anderson and Breck at an 8 p.m. session in the county building. Aim: to see if further reorganization and redefinition of goals is needed.

The directors also endorsed the stand taken by the Alameda County Water District against paying for mains in tracts here.

Charles B. Snow of Newark was named to a committee to investigate a uniform rural fire ordinance.

FLOOD ZONE 5 HEARING TODAY

Final public hearing on formation of a flood-control zone for Niles, Decoto, Newark and Centerville will be held today, July 15, in the Supervisors' chambers, Oakland.

A June 15 meeting was recessed on protest of four landowners to allow the Supervisors to study the projects set up by county flood engineers.

If the Supervisors approve the projects, they are slated to set the date for a bond election to finance the $4,000,000 program.

UTES HERE FOR MRS. EKSTROM

Funeral services for Mrs. Rose Ekstrom, 77, who died at a local rest home on Sunday, were held from Berge mortuary, Niles on Tuesday. Mass followed at Corpus Christi church, with interment in Sacramento.

Mrs. Ekstrom is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Frances Nagli, Niles, Mrs. Anna Rubin, Oakland, and Mrs. Victoria Sexton, Buttonwillow.

Mrs. Ekstrom, a Niles resident for her entire life, was the widow of the late Adolph Ekstrom and sister of the late Judge Joseph A. Silva.

DIRECTORS VOTE 3-2 TO QUIT WELL

In a stormy session, directors of Alameda County Water District voted yesterday to abandon their controversial well at Haley and Mayhews Landing Roads.

Directors E. M. Grimmer, Manuel Bernardo and Louis Amaral voted for the abandonment. The well is currently the subject of an injunction by neighboring farmers who claim it lowers their water levels.

Directors W. H. Patterson and Jack Prouty stood firm for the well. They argued (1) the district has sunk large sums into its establishment, (2) pumping for the city of Newark from the well costs the district $300 a month compared to $1500 if Hetch-Hetchy water has to be used, (3) the well draws from a wide underground pool, affecting not just the nearby farmers but distant lands.

"If we let this get by, other pressure groups can step us from pumping anywhere in the Township," Prouty warned.

But on a vote for Amaral's motion, the abandonment was approved, 3 to 2.

CAROLLING AROUND NEWARK

JEANNE & GENE CARROLL
NEWARK 3-3564

AROUND TOWN

THE GOLDEN HARVEST of apricots is being spread over acres and acres of the township at the many dry yards and is being canned at Booth's . . . both kinds will be welcome on tables in the fall. This is the time of the year housewives trade their kitchen aprons in on canneries and aprons and other mothers and daughters cut cots at the dry yards for that little extra money.

WHILE THE COT SEASON is at its peak the last two weeks of July, the Newark Recreation District plans to suspend its summer recreation program. When August rolls around the program will again be in full swing, with swimming at the Patterson ranch and Hidden Valley as well as the playground, arts and crafts in town.

WE DROVE on the new addition of the freeway (Warm Springs to San Jose) on our trip to Carmel over the Fourth and by golly it is just like riding on a roller coaster. The highway looks slick as glass but when you drive over it your car (ours anyway) bounces in perfect rhythm until you would like to get out and take the springs off. Freeways are the thing . . . we hope the northern end of this new section levels off.

A REPORT HAS come to our ears (from a very reliable source) that a gas station is likely to be located soon at the corner of Thornton and Sycamore. We call this to the attention of the Chamber of Commerce and County Planning Commission and ask a serious question of both bodies: Does the location of a gas station at the choicest corner of a newly zoned commercial (retail) zone conform with rules of good land-use in such a zone?

IN 1953 THE PLANNING COMMISSION, with an assist from the C of C, limited the business district zone and called for expansion of the present shopping area, while refusing Arthur. Beal permission to build his proposed shopping center above the school. If Newark is to expand its present shopping district with any degree of orderliness which would stimulate business and provide stores of quality, will the location of a gas station on its choicest corner help attract those stores or drive them away? That is food for thought . . . not to choke on but to digest.

THE FOURTH OF JULY weekend found many Newarkites driving the highways and byways, short distances and long distances, seeking pleasure, relaxation and change from the daily routine of living. Even columnists get the road fever at times and a sure cure is to get out in the family jalopy and head for the open road and the sights . . . we chose the Monterey peninsula, the beach at Carmel, the 17 Mile Drive, Santa Cruz, fireworks at Sunnyvale and home . . . the 4th was a beautiful day and we found the "highway traffic lighter than on week days . . . which proves only that most people were weekenders.

Like MR. AND MRS. JAMES NEVIS, DENNIS and JIMMY who enjoyed a relaxed weekend at Adams Springs . . . Mr. and Mrs. Norman Mello of our MR. AND MRS. JACK DEWEY of Niles and FLORA MARTEL of Centerville enjoyed the sights and sensations of Reno while 8-month-old Jackie Dewey enjoyed being a "guest" of Jackie Martin.

More people used the one-day variety of change like . . . JOE AND JEANNETTE ROCHA drove over to Tracy and enjoyed the day visiting with Joe's brother, JOHN ROCHA and family . . . REV. MARTIN AND ESTHER TONNER visited with Mrs. Tonner's niece and family, RICHARD AND DELLA TRYON and children in their home at Moffett Field . . . MR. AND MRS. JOE FARIA, DANNY and LINDA, and MR. AND MRS. JOE ROCHA visited with Joe Rocha's nephew JOHN ROCHA in San Jose on Monday . . . the LEO BOHANNONS also sampled hospitality in San Jose on Monday as they visited Leo's parents, MR. AND MRS. CLARENCE BOHANNON . . . RAY AND ROSE BERNARDO and daughters CAROL and SHIRLEY and LEONA BOHANNON took part in the Folk and Square Dance Festival at the Oakland Civic Auditorium on Monday.

Boardwalking along at Santa Cruz we found FRANK and YVONNE GYGAX and children and the CHARLES CHAMPIONS enjoying the same pastime . . . and cruising along among the tans and sunburns of various shades we spotted CHARLES and PAT SNOW and baby JO ANNE and Pat's brother MARSHALL KLEIN all wearing happy smiles.

TONY AND ROSE MARTIN'S hoses continue to bring home trophies. The Albany Recreation department's annual parade found Johnny Pine astride "Pedro" winning the first place trophy for best parade horse and La Verne Soito on "Sirocco" taking second place. That was just the reverse of their order of finish at Pleasanton. JUDY MARTIN rode her pony "Honey" in the parade too.

ORLAND AND MARY MENEZE daughter Myrna and Joe Lewis enjoyed their weekend visiting down the coast. Mrs. Anna George in Morro Bay and Mr. and Mrs. Domingos Garcia in Cayucas were their hosts. It was a wonderful weekend and they did some successful clamming.

JACK BIMEMILLER was a happy lad last Saturday as he celebrated his sixth birthday in grand style with his invited guests: Gary, Roberta and Donna Dettmer, Linda Walden, week vacation at Clear Lake.

Anna Jean Brown, Billy Burnett and of course Lois and Sandy Bimemiller.

MR. AND MRS. NORMAN Cunha and children came up from Hollister to spend the weekend with Mrs. Cunha's Carter.

DOM AND MARIANNE DI Fraia combined their birthday celebrations into one grand evening in San Francisco where Forbidden City in Chinatown was the key to a wonderful time.

ORCHIS TO ROBERT MC-CORD as he saw that the neighborhood kids had a happy time at his annual Fourth of July celebration for the children. He dispensed 100 ice cream cones, 1000 sparklers and other "safe and sane" fireworks to please the youngsters.

MR. AND MRS. MANUEL Pavao and children enjoyed their vacation in and around Reno for a week.

TONY AND LAURA FRAG-ULIA and daughters, Vivian and Bernice enjoyed a week of vacationing at Monterey as guests of Mrs. Helen Torres. While there they drove down to visit Richard Fragula at the National Guard camp.

LEONARD AND HELEN BET-TENCOURT and son Dennis enjoyed a travelling vacation through the southland and into Tia Juana. They visited with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bettencourt (George's brother) in San Diego and Manuel Cordeniz (Helen's brother) in Tulare as well as enjoying the sights along the way.

ARTHUR AND PAULINE BROWN spent their week vacation in the southland too. They visited with friends and relatives in the San Pedro and Los Angeles area.

SMALL WORLD DEPART-MENT . . . the streets of Ventura were like Thornton Avenue when the Bettencourts and Browns exchanged howdys and oh gosh, imagine meeting you here, at their chance meeting.

PINK AND BLUE QUESTION marks were the predominant decorations for the stork welcoming shower given by Mrs. Pat Pierce for the infant-pating Mrs. Loretta Smith last Friday. Attending were: Mmes. Dorothy Mohn, Ellen Mohn, Ellen Mohn, Donna Dennis, Niles; Vi Mohn, Lucille Facey and daughter Louis, Maureen Ratcliff, Julia Honeysett, Centerville; Mildred Thornton, San Francisco; Misses. Kathleen Burford, Lee Ann Shepherd, Maxine Smith, Centerville, Mary Smith, San Francisco; Renee Jones of Niles and Mrs. Facey of Portland, Oregon who is visiting Mrs. Lucille Facey and family in Centerville.

LAST WEEK HENRY AND Helen Kohlenberg and children, Bud and Leila bid adieu to their friends, relatives and to their Centerville home and transferred their belongings to Myrtle Creek, Oregon where Henry will earn dimes in a nickel refinery.

JOE AND EMMA DIAS, Clar-ence and Mildred Soito and Nancy along with Janet Springer all enjoyed a wonderful week vacation at Clear Lake.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN Olivera enjoyed a motoring vacation to the scenic Northwest. They topped off the twelve-day trip with a visit to Victoria and Vancouver, B.C. and found out why the northwest is so green . . . rain. It was a sightseeing trip and they found many scenes to marvel at all along the way.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN FREI-tas Jr., Jeffrey and Joan, Mrs. John Freitas Sr. and David Sr. and David Freitas did Fourth of July in Watsonville.

THE LACEY HOME was as a beehive on the "Fourth" weekend as Herb and Florence entertained Herb's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Herman from Boston, Massachusetts who are visiting with his dad, Tom Lacey in Alameda. Also on the guest list was Herb's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brooks, Tommy, Cathy, Billy and Mary Elizabeth of Willow Glenn and his brother John Bernard Lacey of Alameda. Flavor was added when Aron and Lucy Estabrook, just arrived home from a two-year stay in Kodiak, Alaska, dropped in. The Estabrooks are visiting with Lucy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Mariani of Centerville.

CATHY ARNOLD, Judy Lloyd and Leona Bohannon are enjoying this week at the Presbyterian camp for juniors at Westminster Woods on the Russian River. The young ladies will return Saturday.

HAPPY THIRTEENTH anniversary wishes are on the wire to Emil and Roselene Pierce.

Teen-Age Buffet for Four

A summer Saturday evening, a good movie, the "nicest boy in town," and their favorite double date—what more could a gal ask! Well, she can ask to do her share, say a supper for four on the verandah. If she's smart she plans a simple meal, low in cost and low in calories too—teen-age boys are almost as weight conscious as girls.

Lay in a supply of paper plates and cups—no time to waste in dishwashing. Barbecued frankfurters and potato chips are always popular and filling, too. But a smart girl is going to come up with something just a bit different—perhaps a frosty pitcher of Iced Tea Punch. This one adds lemon-flavored gelatin and orange juice to sparkling, refreshing tea in a combination as new as it is delicious.

Iced Tea Punch

2 cups boiling water 1 package lemon-flavored gelatin
3 tablespoons tea leaves 3 cups reconstituted orange juice
Fresh mint leaves

Pour boiling water over tea leaves; steep 3 to 5 minutes. Strain. Pour hot tea over gelatin and stir until completely dissolved. Add orange juice. Pour over cracked ice and garnish with fresh mint leaves. Makes 5 to 6 servings.

Serve Pineapple Mint Cream

A colorful, cool-looking dessert that is fancy in appearance and an exotic treat to serve is Pineapple Mint Cream. It's a perfect ending for a dinner party, full of good food value as well as good flavor.

Golden pineapple combines appetizingly with macaroon crumbs and whipped cream folded into a gelatin base.

For a special party dessert, decorate Pineapple Mint Cream with ruby red strawberries, pineapple slices and mint leaves.

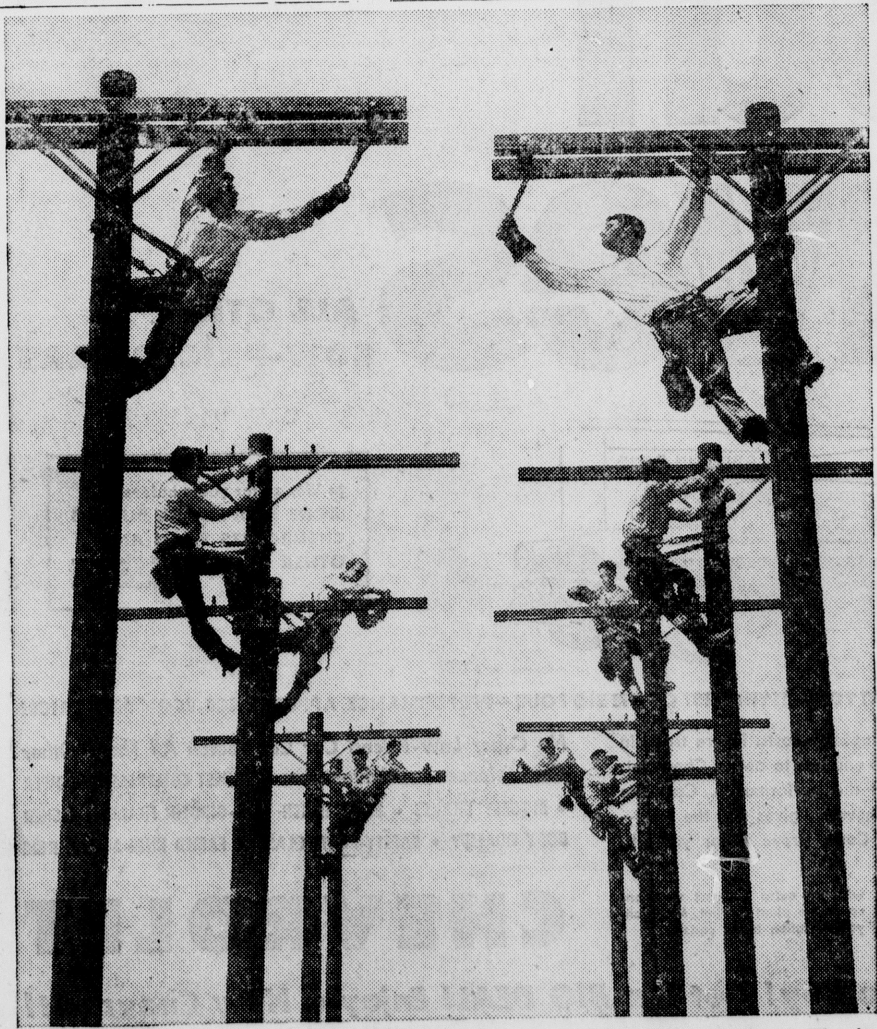

Pineapple Mint Cream

1 1/2 tablespoons plain gelatin 2 egg whites
1/2 cup cold water 1/2 teaspoon salt
1 No. 2 can sliced pineapple 1/2 cup sugar
2 tablespoons chopped fresh mint* 1/2 cup macaroon or cookie crumbs
1 tablespoon lemon juice 1 cup whipping cream

Soften gelatin in cold water. Drain syrup from pineapple; add to mint leaves and bring to boil. Stir in gelatin, cover and let steep about 15 minutes. Strain. Add lemon juice and chill until thick but not firm. Cut pineapple into wedges, saving out 1 or 2 slices for decoration. Beat egg whites with salt until stiff and gradually beat in sugar. Fold into thickened gelatin. Fold in pineapple and crumbs. Whip cream until stiff and fold into mixture. Pour into oiled or wet 1 1/2 quart mold. Chill until firm. Unmold and decorate with whole strawberries, pineapple slices and frosted mint leaves.

*If fresh mint not available, use few drops mint extract.

Serves eight.

Newark Trustees Ask 'Yes' Vote Tuesday On Tax To Meet Growth

By KITTY SAMMON

On July 20, next Tuesday, residents of Newark will be asked to approve an increase in the school district operating tax rate from the basic 90c to $1.20 per $100 of assessed valuation.

The board is asking this increase due to the mounting school enrollment, necessitating the hiring of more teachers, to finance purchase of a new school bus, and for the care and maintenance of the present school and for the new school which should be in operation by next Easter.

The school term closed last year with an average daily attendance of 500. There are now 800 children, and by a very conservative estimate there will be at least 950 before Christmas, 1954, according to Superintendent Jack MacGregor. The proposed new Smith-Peters tract alone will comprise 302 homes, supplying at least twice that number of pupils.

"Five of the nine school districts in the Township have had tax increases within the past five years. The Newark board has held off as long as possible, and even with the increased tax, Newark will have one of the lowest tax rates in the area," McGregor added.

Comparable rates are Alvarado, $1.04, Centerville $1.20, Decoto $2.07, Irvington 90c, Mission San Jose $1.33, Niles 96c, Warm Springs 88c, Alameda $1.79, San Leandro $2.07, Castro Valley $1.46, Hayward $1.51, San Lorenzo $1.90, Russell City $1.55.

The State Department of Education has approved the "junior hi" site on Thornton Avenue for the new intermediate school, and has approved the preliminary plans. The Alameda County Flood Control has approved drainage plans for the site. Justification-for-need documents have been submitted to the State for approval, which should be forthcoming soon.

The school board has asked the architects to continue to work on detailed drawings, so that construction can be started before September. Estimated cost is $325,000. It will contain 12 classrooms, library and homemaking room. It is entirely probable that the library and homemaking room will be used for classrooms until the double sessions are alleviated.

WESTVACO WORKER KILLED BY TRAIN NEAR NEWARK

A young Westvaco student-chemist was fatally injured Friday when his car was struck by a Southern Pacific switch engine at the Central Avenue crossing, near Newark. The victim was Eugene D. Wortner, 23, of San Jose, a student at San Jose State College. Wortner's body lay unclaimed in the county morgue for 16½ hours while authorities tried to locate his young bride.

Wortner, heading west on Central on his way to work shortly before 4 p.m., evidently did not note the approaching engine until too late. Then he applied the brakes, but skidded 70 feet, landing underneath the engine. The impact hurled him out and under the train. He died en route to Fairmont Hospital.

Engineer H. J. Wright, 64, of Oakland, said he blew his whistle twice to attract the driver's attention. There is no signal at the crossing. Newark Chamber of Commerce pleads last spring brought word that the county and SP would install wigwags, but these have not been emplaced.

Wortner's death is the latest of several that have occurred at the site.

The college student had been working a late shift at the Newark plant. He also leaves a 7-months-old son.

Mrs. Wortner did not learn of his death until he failed to return from work the following day. Authorities found a Hayward address in Wortner's identification papers, and it was not until early Saturday that they traced him to San Jose.

READERS WRITE US

Editor, Sir:

Being very reticent about "choosing" an editor at any time as I believe he should be and usually is very well prepared to defend himself and, liking no end the way in which you handle your editorials, I do feel as though I want more information on this very current and nasty McCarthy deal. I do wish to "carry on" over your editorial of June 17th, 1954 — "Could It Happen?"

Your statements definitely infer the possibility that Senator McCarthy is being urged on to "greater and greater excesses, destroying national constitutions, yet all the time he is diverted from really catching any spies" — "by one young man of undisputed brilliance." You suggest that Roy Cohn has been cast in this subversive role by the Communists. You feel that it is possible that Mr. Cohn has been placed by the Communists to divert Senator McCarthy.

I urge you to give this possibility practical and realistic thought. As you know, the eleven top-string Communists of them, eight were convicted in New York and Mr. Cohn played an influential part in their conviction. How can you possibly correlate your "story-book possibility" with the facts?

If you have succumbed to Senator Symington's innuendoes that McCarthy's staff needs investigating, I remind you of McCarthy's testimony. He stated that he is able to get a "name-check" from the F.B.I. on his personnel, but that he desires a "full-field investigation." He awaits the Justice Department's ruling hoping that he may have a "full-field investigation."

When we realize that 800 million human beings have been taken over by the Communist yoke since the close of World War II, and then we analyze the strength of anti-McCarthy feeling in this country, logical thinking demands admitting the fact how very successfully the Communists are being received in this country.

The only crime that Senator McCarthy is guilty of, is trying to alert this nation to the dangers of Communist infiltration.

Sincerely,
R. N. McKEE

Editor, Sir:

Why reduce the speed limit on the highways of California to 45 miles per hour? A few years ago, Highway 9 passed through the town of Niles. Merchants and the Chamber of Commerce screamed about motorists speeding through town, so the highway was routed around Niles. Now, the Chamber of Commerce has succeeded in reducing the speed limit on the highway that has by-passed the town.

If this trend continues, the speed limit of our highways will be 45 or 35 MPH. If the highway was there FIRST, then the speed limit should remain at 55 miles per hour. Give the motorists a break!

SUZY SEZ...

Habits are hard to break. For example, that Niles man who helps around the house occasionally, and even though the children are gone, still cooks a huge pot of potatoes. Left-overs for a week!

Here's an idea for laying linoleum on an uneven floor. Place a thick layer of newspapers on the floor first.

She won't tell you so, but the real reason a Township woman dyed her hair was that folks thought she was her son's grandmother!

How I envy the "Father's Day gift" one family received. It's an automatic dishwasher.

Even though some folks disregard them, I welcome the white lines and parking spaces newly painted in the Township.

An Orchard Park mother says she always breaks apart her frozen vegetables in the box before adding to the water, by thumping the container against her drain board.

The man of the family may laugh at my grocery lists, saying my brains are on a piece of paper, but I seldom forget an item that way. And it's easier to plan menus, too.

I can't help but wonder when that warehouse in Centerville that is the headquarters for so many transients, both male and female, will be torn down?

Ever notice, during summer months the housewives who arrive at the local postoffices all look so cool and comfortable, until a well-dressed bank or office employee arrives? Then we just look sloppy.

I still can't explain how it happened that I gave a big welcoming kiss and a hug to a neighbor's child when I arrived home the other day. I must have been dazed by the heavy traffic.

And then there's the Township five-year-old who told his divorced mother that he was going to find a daddy, and he'd let her know

Illinois Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. William Keul of Blawie Road, Centerville, recently entertained Mr. and Mrs. Elmer R. Miller of Rock Falls, Illinois. Out here on a three week tour of the western states, including parks and other points of interest, Mr. and Mrs. Miller proceeded on to San Francisco to sightsee there.

Even on the warmest day, one Newark woman has found her garage is cool, so she often irons there.

If you are short of storage space for cakes, try using your large soup kettle or roasting pan with a tight-fitting lid.

Here's another idea: Add milk to some pancake flour, and mix into hamburgers or meat loaf. Adds good flavor.

The stop sign on the Northern corner of Olive and Thornton in Newark is too well concealed by tree branches to be seen clearly. And I still think the hedge at Parish and Fremont, in Centerville, constitutes a real driving hazard. So long...

MISSION SAN JOSE NEWS

By TEDDY PEREIRA

Our fire chief, Jack Pereira extends his sincere gratitude to all the firemen for assisting him fight the "200-acre" fire last week. As Jack says "It makes a fellow feel good to have such cooperation."

Congratulations are certainly in order for Rose and Roscoe White-side as this week they happily celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary.

Oregon was selected by the R. E. Andersons and children to spend several happy days. They formerly lived there.

Sure was tough on me; had to be refined up at Ann William's this week, as she entertained Los Angeles relatives.

And that reminds me, Molly Steele is on her week's vacation. Molly is that "all-around" gal at Ann's.

Mom stayed home this time, as Johnny Feleciano and young son, Alvin, spent several days at their Lake Tahoe cabin.

Sure sorry Babe Gravett, after you looked forward for a few days of rest and pleasure, your whole trip to the Santa Cruz and Big Basin area was spoiled because you were so ill.

Atta girl, Iris Lofton, its about time you have a little fun as you did over the week end taking in San Francisco's Playland theater and dinner with that plenty nice lad, Chuck Wiggins.

You have to hand it to these kids Charles Schneider, Dewayne Hill, Reno de Bernardo, Marlen Dunbar, they have what it takes, having just returned from two weeks of really rugged training with the National Guard and all that heat.

Our good friend, Nickey, owner of Missions fruit and vegetable stand has asked me to tell you he will be in a hospital for several weeks, but that his mother and dad and wife will operate the stand during his absence. Our good wishes for successful surgery and recuperation.

Everytime I think of it I have to laugh, Margaret Hanley, but its the way you described it how "the so-nice little doggie" bit you. One look at your leg however, sobers one.

Generally speaking I hate to have company but I was so pleasantly surprised, with a visit from Mrs. Eunice Ricard of Baton Rouge, La., that I got positively silly. Real friends are hard to find these days.

Curiosity being aroused, I finally asked young Richard Wingett, who was the cute youngster he has been totting around the town, so proudly Dick informed me it was his little cousin, Michael Wingett from Los Angeles, spending the summer here.

San Luis Obispo was the spot chosen by Mr. and Mrs. Kim McBride and son, Mickey, when they visited friends over the weekend.

Mervin and Barbara Santos visited Merv's brother, Bill, at Greenwood in the Sierras.

The Manuel Phillips have been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Dutra of Lincoln.

Now that Mrs. Helen Santos has been improving in health, she is getting around more. This week she is spending with Elaine Silveria in Hayward.

Stella and Nellie Brayevich of Los Gatos were dinner guests of Mrs. H. Santos Sunday.

Gosh! Wasn't it swell having our gal "Lou" of Gilroy spending a few days with Chet and Maud Holtz.

Swim, Barbecue For Bruce Michael Guests

A swim-party followed by an outdoor barbecue highlighted a weekend for the Bruce Michaels of Warm Springs last Sunday.

Out-of-town guests of Mr. and Mrs. Michaels included Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Gillette, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Witter, James Kemble Mills and William de Young of San Francisco; Dr. and Mrs. Marcel Kahn of Livermore, and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Reed of Los Altos.

Lazy summer appetites perk up with a refreshing salad plate of fresh juicy orange slices and nut bread sandwiches. Add chunks of watermelon and a bed of greens for a cool, colorful luncheon. To prepare an individual plate, peel and slice one California orange into thin cartwheels. These Valencia oranges are easy to peel and practically seedless so are ideal for summer salads. Arrange the cartwheels on greens with pieces of melon or summer berries. Then spread orange nut bread with butter or cream cheese and luncheon is ready! Add tall glasses of lemonade or iced tea with lemon wedges for added refreshment.

California Orange Nut Bread

¾ cup orange juice	½ cup coarsely chopped pecans
3 tablespoons grated orange peel	2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
3 tablespoons butter or margarine	½ teaspoon baking soda
½ cup finely cut dates	1 teaspoon baking powder
1 cup sugar	½ teaspoon salt
1 egg, slightly beaten

Mix orange juice, peel, melted butter or margarine, dates, sugar, egg, and pecans. Sift flour, soda, baking powder and salt together; add to orange mixture. Mix well and pour into greased 9x5x2½ inch loaf pan. Bake in moderate oven (350°F.) for 50 minutes or until done. (This bread cuts more easily if made a day ahead of serving.)

$100,000 Savings Office, Store To Open This Year In Centerville

Washington Township will soon have its first savings and loan association office. Plans have been completed for the construction of a new permanent office and store building at 168 South Main Street in Centerville by Berkeley Savings and Loan Association, according to an announcement made this week by E. Ronald Long, President.

The development involves an investment in excess of $100,000. Berkeley Savings is a 33-year-old institution with assets of more than 16 million dollars. Offices are maintained in Berkeley and Walnut Creek.

Construction of the new Berkeley Savings building in Centerville is scheduled to start about August first, with completion set for the first of December. Site preparation began late in June.

A temporary office has been opened adjacent to the site, under the direction of Fred Richardson, Manager. Business hours at the temporary office are 1 to 5 p.m., Mondays through Fridays.

The permanent building at Centerville, designed by Architect Paul Hammarberg, A.I.A., will be of masonry construction, with clear span roof trusses. It will contain the Berkeley Savings office and a large store which will be leased to Sprouse, Reitz & Co., a national chain store.

The exterior is scheduled to be faced with ceramic veneer. A wide marquee of modern design will extend across the entire building, providing protection against weather and glare. Off-street parking is being provided for fifty cars.

The bank offices will occupy 1650 square feet, and the adjoining store, including mezzanine, will have floor space of 8000 square feet. A model banking office installation is being prepared by Berkeley Savings, which will open in December with ultra-modern facilities.

"Our decision to purchase property and build a permanent office in Washington Township is the outgrowth of an extensive study of several Northern California sections," Long said.

"As a result we are convinced that the future of this region is one of the brightest in the entire country. Obviously, the many significant developments now taking place here show that we are not alone in this view.

"Compared with the San Francisco peninsula — another fine section — it is our opinion that the continuous existing development now extending from San Jose to San Francisco represents a condition which will channel the greatest future activity to the eastern Bayshore and particularly to Washington Township.

"We want to become an integral part of the Washington Township community, and to share in its progress. Our two functions as a source of safety — insured investment and of long term home loans will enable Berkeley Savings to play a direct role building this area."

The Berkeley Savings building in Centerville will occupy the former Stevenson property on South Main Street. The old home, built by the late Dr. H. W. Emerson in 1911, was recently removed to make way for the new structure.
